Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I am happy to announce that we will be able to hold the Union Meetings. Though there will be changes enacted in how we have to gather, I hope that you all will join together in Brotherhood. Face Masks will be required and social distancing rules will be followed. The hall will be thoroughly cleaned and sanitized prior to the meeting. No food will be provided at this time. The Union works better when we ALL work together.

“At the core, labor unions (we) are working men and women, unified as one force. Despite any personal differences that may exist between us, we have banded together to protect and improve the lives of workers. We rise up together for the greater good. We defend one another like family.”
