Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Labor Day is just around the corner, and we have made preparations for a GREAT day! Our Labor Day Parade shirts are here and ready for you to pick up the morning of the Parade. Candy to throw to the crowd will be bagged up and ready for you and your family to delight the children in the crowd (and maybe a few adults). Jared is ready to fire up the grill for our Annual Labor Day Cookout at the hall after the Parade. I can't wait to see everyone and try all the delicious side dishes you will bring. Just show up with your family and friends by 8:30am and we'll do the rest!

There are many open calls on the books right now. We have several calls at the refinery, some calls at Chem-Trade in Cairo, and a few left for Honda – East Liberty. A variety of calls... a variety of contractors... the refinery is offering incentives... We're hoping to see our calls filled, and the best electricians around come home!

Please make sure you are checking your First Aid/CPR certification dates. Also check out the classes page of this newsletter. The best investment you can ever make is in yourself. Take the classes! Get your certifications! Make some extra $$$$!
