The Ole' Guys

This month eight retirees spent an enjoyable afternoon talking about a variety of subjects. As usual the conversations varied from the current state of our country and how it might affect each of us personally, to our recent health conditions, to area resources where retirees could find important information. Specific doctors were mentioned, and health tips were shared.

But most of our time was sharing our stories of the jobs and friends who got us to retirement. As I have said before, those friends and stories go a long way to an enjoyable retirement. Come join us on July 9th @ 2 PM.
